

EXECUTIVE SHORT COURSE ON

GAS MONETIZATION ECONOMICS & INVESTMENT DECISION MAKING

February 25 - March 1, 2019

Led by Engr. Fisoye Delano

COURSE DESCRIPTION AND TOPICS COVERED

The course provides a great perspective of the natural gas business, from wellheads to market. The course will clarify investment decision making concepts such as: time value of money, cash-flow models, capital budgeting. It includes analysis and discussions of contemporary Natural Gas market issues central to the development of the natural gas industry. Examples and case studies of existing, ongoing and planned projects along the Natural Gas, LPG and LNG value chains and the Gas to Power value chain will also be discussed.

TARGETED PARTICIPANTS

The course is designed specifically for energy economists, engineers, accountants, journalists, managers, legal, planning, project, sales and marketing, team members and all individuals who require an understanding of the commercial frameworks and economics of Gas Monetization options.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

The objective of this class is to provide participants with the required knowledge for the application of economic concepts to gas monetization options and natural gas markets. At the end of the class, the expectation is that participants will be able to make more informed decisions on the nature and significance of Natural Gas, LNG and LPG commercial issues when they arise.
