This year's conference, tagged "Maiduguri 2026", has the theme "Engineering Innovation for Enhanced Security and Sustainable National Development". The theme reflects engineering's pivotal role in peace and security by helping humanity overcome adversity through resilience. Engineering innovation helps overcome present and future security challenges by providing ready, affordable, and sustainable solutions. Human existence depends on building infrastructure, restoring broken amenities, and providing immediate facilities that keep life going, while ensuring environmental sustainability and development.

We anticipate participation from a diverse range of stakeholders, including the World Federation of Engineering Organisations (WFEO), African engineering bodies, Government agencies, the private sector, decision-makers, Researchers, presenters, and thought leaders. The gathering provides an unparalleled platform for knowledge exchange, policy discussion, product and service exhibitions, strategic collaboration, and networking.
